Description: This good-quality antique 14.5-inch mahogany Enfield wall clock features a railway station design and a genuine chiming Enfield mechanism. Our workshop has lovingly restored it to its former glory, so it now works reliably and keeps good time. As a result, this clock is ready to hang on your wall today. Case, Bezel & Dial Design The clock's dark mahogany case features a moulded mahogany bezel, a pendulum access door underneath, and a mechanism-viewing door on the left-hand side. Consequently, you can watch the chiming mechanism at work while the clock runs. A hinged mahogany bezel also houses the glass that protects the ...
