Description

Iconic Heals 1930's Oak Skull Reclining Table & Book Armchair – Rare Paper Label A rare model of a Heals of London early thirties reclining oak armchair with a built in open bookcase to one side and a drop down oak reading table to the other side. A rare design by Walter Skull for Heals in 1932, this rare model is in superb original condition, all works very well and highly unusual and rare is that this example still has the original paper makers label. Requires a seat and back rest cushion and a chance to choose your own finishing fabric. An iconic sought after Heals design, perfect for a home library, sitting room or office. When the reading table is opened up, the total width is 102cm. Dimensions Height: 72cm (28.57") Width: 74cm (29.37") Depth: 83cm (32.94")
