Description

A Victorian silver vesta case with clear hallmarks for Birmingham 1897 and makers mark for Joseph Gloster. The case is rare as its rectangular form and quite deep sides and base enable it to be free standing/upright, as well as lying flat or hanging from a chain. Standing upright, it can be admired as an object in it's own right. It is decorated with engraved scrolls on each side, with one side bearing discreet initials, WM, that match the pattern. A good gauge of silver, and in excellent condition.
