Description

A superb set of ten Chippendale style mahogany dining chairs, comprising eight side chairs and two carvers. Of elegant proportions and beautifully crafted, these chairs display the distinctive decorative features associated with the Chippendale tradition. The chairs are raised upon square legs united by H-frame stretchers, providing both strength and stability. The shaped backs feature elegant cresting rails above pierced and shaped central splats, creating a particularly attractive silhouette. The two carver chairs are distinguished by their shaped arms and matching uprights. The chairs retain their lift-out seats, offering practicality for reupholstery should the new owner wish to introduce their own choice of fabric. The rich mahogany has developed a wonderful warm, mellow patina, enhancing the character and appeal of the set. A highly attractive and versatile set of dining chairs, equally suited to a traditional dining room or a more contemporary interior. Presented in good condition with a wonderful antique patina.
