Description

A most imposing Mahogany longcase three train clock from the Edwardian period, circa 1905.. With grotesque masks carved at the base, the shoulders and at the uppermost peak. The decorative hood houses a detailed brass dial and 3 train movement. Through the bevelled pane door the tubes, pendulum and weights are visible . This is a tall, quality clock of the highest order and was reputedly purchased from the London trade in the 1990s for £11500. Comes with free UK mainland delivery and setting up.
