Description

Antique French Cherry Wood Refectory Farmhouse Dining Table – c.1880 – 4 Seater A beautiful French cherry wood refectory farmhouse dining table, dating to circa 1880. A wonderfully authentic country piece with a rich cherry wood plank top, displaying a beautiful warm colour and naturally developed patina from almost 150 years of age and use. The table stands on stunning turned legs, giving it an elegant yet wonderfully rustic French farmhouse appearance. A useful single side drawer adds both character and practical storage. Its compact proportions make this the perfect cottage-size dining table for four, ideal for a country kitchen, period cottage or smaller dining space. Details: French, circa 1880 Solid cherry wood Rich plank top Beautiful original colour and aged patina Stunning turned legs Single side drawer Comfortable four-seater size Wonderful French farmhouse character A particularly charming and very usable 19th-century French farmhouse table, combining beautiful proportions, rich colour and genuine age-earned character.
