Description

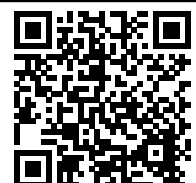

An original Regency armchair / library chair circa 1820 of the utmost quality. Features include two scrolls to the back, scrolled arms which terminate in carved eagles heads and sabre legs with eagles feet/claws to the front. The upholstery is in excellent condition having been newly re-covered. (the colour of the fabric is black/brown/grey as seen in the pictures showing the close ups of the eagles heads and does not have the purplish colour that it seems in the other pictures.) An extremely desirable and hard to find chair - probably Irish. Height - 89cm / 35" Seat height - 46cm / 18" Depth of seat - 54cm / 21" Width of chair - 61cm / 24"
