Description

The rectangular bow-fronted top sits above a central frieze drawer flanked by four further drawers, the drawer fronts displaying particularly attractive figured mahogany. The central section incorporates a reeded tambour-fronted cellarette, framed by unusual carved fan decoration. Raised on six slender turned and reeded legs terminating in shaped feet, and retaining decorative brass ring handles. A handsome and well-proportioned Regency sideboard, with attractive figuring to the drawer fronts and particularly appealing architectural detailing to the central cellarette. English, circa 1810.
