Description

A decorative Victorian carved walnut chair, dating to circa 1870. The tall upholstered back is flanked by boldly turned barley-twist uprights, with pierced and carved scrolling decoration to either side and an elaborate carved scrolling crest above. The back and generously upholstered seat are covered in a richly coloured floral tapestry-style fabric, predominantly in muted reds, greens and blues against a dark ground. Raised on shaped cabriole front legs with scroll feet, with swept rear legs. A particularly attractive Victorian chair, displaying good quality carving and a warm colour and patination to the walnut. English, circa 1870. Seat Height 32cm

Internal Ref: C3011
