Description

Antique 19th century Victorian cupboard in pitch pine, a substantial and practical piece with a warm, rustic character. Well made and of good quality, it offers generous storage in a design that is both useful and full of Victorian charm. The cupboard stands on sturdy legs and features a large drawer to the upper section, fitted with decorative brass handles. Below, two doors open to reveal a spacious storage compartment, ideal for household items, linens or dinnerware. The pitch pine has a particularly unique and beautiful grain, with a rich, warm colour that gives the piece plenty of depth and individuality. Its natural variation and sturdy proportions make this a highly desirable cupboard with real character. Presented in good condition, this attractive Victorian cupboard would make a wonderful addition to a kitchen, dining room, hallway or reception room, providing useful storage with an inviting antique feel.
