Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian barley twist tea trolley in oak, a charming and practical piece with an abundance of period character. Well made and of good quality, it offers a stylish way to serve drinks, display items or provide useful additional storage. The trolley stands on castors, allowing it to be moved easily when required, and is supported by attractive barley twist legs. Two useful under tier shelves provide ample space for tea sets, glassware, books or decorative pieces, making it as versatile as it is appealing. The oak displays a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, complementing the attractive turned detailing and classic Edwardian design. Its well-balanced proportions and timeless appearance make it a highly desirable piece for a range of interiors. Presented in good condition, this delightful tea trolley would make a lovely feature in a dining room, living room or conservatory, bringing warmth, practicality and antique charm to the space.
