Description

I am delighted to offer this fine 18thc Old Master Portrait After Raphael which has been previously restored and carefully refurbished. The oil painting is on canvas and depicts 'The Madonna & Child' (Roman School) expertly painted within a painted feigned oval and is set within a later dark walnut veneered frame with decorative gilt onlay. ABOUT The Madonna della seggiola or Madonna della sedia, also known as the "Madonna Of The Chair," is a version where Madonna is looking out at the artist instead of towards the child in arms. This quality example is an excellent work of high Renaissance artistry. The original masterpiece was painted in Rome, by 31 year old Italian painter Raphael Santi. Today the painting is displayed in the Palazzo Pitti, in Florence, Italy. It depicts Mary embracing the child Christ, while the young John the Baptist devoutly watches. Painted during his Roman period, this Madonna does not have the strict geometrical form and linear style of his earlier Florentine treatments of the same subject. Instead, the warmer colors seem to suggest the influence of Titian and Raphael's rival Sebastiano del Piombo. Maria Montessori, Italian doctor and p...
