Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

An elegant model...and a set! The bobbins are not the Webb/Morris design but I've had this model before and was previously able to compare to a chair designed by Philip Webb for Morris & Co. and in all other respects they were identical. The frames and rush seats are in good order. The colour of the frames are mottled in places with both green and darker tones. One chair missing two fillets of wood around the rush seat. Reliable transport at cost price throughout the UK is easy to arrange.
