Description

Antique 20th century bedside cabinet in oak, a charming and practical piece with a simple, traditional design. Well made and of good quality, it would make a useful addition to a bedroom or any room needing a little extra storage. The cabinet door is fitted with a decorative brass handle and opens to reveal a single internal shelf, providing convenient space for books, personal items or everyday essentials. The oak displays a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, enhancing the character of the wood and complementing its classic appearance. Its compact proportions and timeless styling make it a highly desirable piece that will suit both period and contemporary interiors. Presented in good condition, this attractive bedside cabinet offers both storage and antique charm, bringing a warm and characterful touch to any room. Product Reference : AF - 6355
