Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian inlaid cabinet in mahogany, a beautifully designed piece with elegant proportions and a wealth of period detail. Well made and of good quality, it is an attractive piece of furniture with practical storage and display possibilities. The cabinet has a raised gallery to the top, incorporating a mirror that gives the piece an added sense of elegance and refinement. Below, the lower section features two neatly fitted shelves, enclosed behind a glass cabinet door, making it ideal for displaying treasured pieces while keeping them protected. Supported by tapered legs, the cabinet has a light and graceful Edwardian appearance. The mahogany displays a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, while the inlaid detailing adds a particularly attractive finishing touch. Presented in good condition, this elegant cabinet would make a lovely addition to a dining room, reception room or bedroom, offering an eye-catching place to display china, glassware or decorative items.
