Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian carved side table in oak, a beautifully detailed piece with plenty of period character. Well made and of good quality, it offers a charming and versatile addition to any home. The table is supported by four gorgeous turned legs, joined by a supporting stretcher that provides strength and stability. Beautiful carved detailing enhances the design, giving the piece an elegant and decorative Edwardian appearance. The oak displays a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, complementing the quality of the construction and attractive carved features. Its well-balanced proportions and timeless styling make it a highly desirable table that will suit both period and contemporary interiors. Presented in good condition, this characterful side table would make a lovely feature in a living room, hallway or bedroom, adding warmth and antique charm wherever it is placed.
