Description

A compact and beautifully made antique Georgian style mahogany small breakfront sideboard. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1900-1910 period. It is a very useful size and has a very smart design. The quality is superb, with gorgeous mahogany grain patterns and lots of storage space. There is a cross banded top, original brass handles and it sits on beautifully shaped bracket feet. There are seven drawers in total, with panelled doors on either side. We have recently had this re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age, with some minor historical wear and patina here and there. This delightful small sideboard takes up no more room than a small console table, yet it has plenty of storage, so it's a great space saver. Width - 39 inches , 99 cm Depth - 12 inches , 31 cm Height - 30 inches , 76 cm
