Description

Antique 19th century fine quality Victorian side table in oak, a beautifully designed piece with elegant proportions and plenty of period character. Well made and of good quality, it offers a refined and versatile addition to any home. The table is supported by a striking tripod base, connected to a beautifully turned central pillar. This classic Victorian design gives the piece a graceful appearance while providing a sturdy and well-balanced foundation. The oak displays a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, enhancing the quality of the timber and complementing the attractive turned detailing. Its timeless style makes it a highly desirable piece that will suit both period and contemporary interiors. Presented in good condition, this handsome Victorian side table would make a lovely lamp table or occasional table, bringing warmth, character and a touch of antique elegance to any room.
