Description

Antique 19th century small Victorian side table in oak, a lovely little piece with a simple and beautifully balanced design. Well made and of good quality, its classic appearance allows the warmth and character of the oak to really stand out. The table stands on beautifully turned legs with a useful shelf to the base, adding practicality while keeping the overall design elegant and uncluttered. Its small proportions make it easy to place beside a chair, sofa or in a hallway. Gorgeous grain and colour can be seen throughout, giving the piece a warm and inviting appearance. Very desirable and in good condition, a charming example of Victorian furniture that would sit beautifully in any home.
