Description

A charming antique Edwardian wall mirror, dating from around 1900, featuring a distinctive diamond-shaped wooden frame upholstered in warm golden-brown velvet. The mirror is decorated with attractive ornate brass/gilt-metal mounts to each corner, incorporating fan and floral motifs. The original hanging loop remains at the top, while the lower section features a decorative brass wall-mounted candle sconce, giving the piece an unusual and highly decorative appearance. A lovely example of late Victorian / Edwardian decorative wall furniture, with an eclectic Arts & Crafts influence. An eye-catching addition to an antique, period or eclectic interior. Dimensions: Height: 32 cm Width: 32 cm Depth: 17 cm Condition: The mirror has attractive age-related wear, including areas of foxing, silvering loss and deterioration around the edges of the mirror glass, as clearly visible in the photographs. The velvet has some signs of age and wear, consistent with its age. The brass mounts have an aged patina. Please study all photographs carefully as they form an important part of the description. Key Features: * Antique Edwardian wall mirror * Circa 1900 * Diamond-shaped...
