Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian writing table in mahogany, an elegant and practical piece with refined proportions and generous built-in storage. Well made and of good quality, it would make a beautiful focal point in a study, bedroom or reception room. The table stands on impressive cabriole legs, which give it a graceful and distinctive Edwardian silhouette. Two large drawers to the upper section and two further drawers below provide ample space for stationery, paperwork and other everyday essentials, all fitted with beautiful decorative brass handles. The mahogany displays a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, complementing the quality of the construction and the elegant curve of the legs. Its well-balanced design makes it a highly desirable piece that offers both style and function. Presented in good condition, this attractive writing table would provide a lovely place to work, write or display personal items, bringing antique character to any room.
