Description

C. 1920, Pair of Chesterfield Armchairs, Upholstered in Red Oxblood Rexine (English). This stunning, and very comfortable, pair of chesterfield armchairs came from the parlour of a manor house in North Yorkshire where they have been in the same family since 1920/30. It was described as 'the good room', only used on special occasions, and as such the furniture over the past 100 years has had minimal use; which explains the excellent condition these chairs are in. Upholstered in Red Oxblood Rexine on a Carved Oak Base and Legs which sit on Brass Castors and Porcelain Wheels. AUTUMN SALE. VISIT WEBSITE. <https://www.WhiteSpaceAntiques.com>
CONDITION: Very minimal scratches to legs. No rips, tears or scratches to rexine. PROVENANCE: From a manor house in North Yorkshire.
