Description

Antique 20th century French marble top cabinet in walnut, a beautifully elegant piece with a refined shape and plenty of decorative appeal. Well made and of good quality, it offers useful storage while making a striking addition to any home. The cabinet stands on four graceful cabriole legs with carved knees, giving it a classic French appearance. A drawer to the upper section and a lower cupboard door, both fitted with knob handles, provide practical storage for smaller items and household essentials. The walnut features a beautiful natural grain and rich warm colour, enhanced by the decorative pattern of the wood. The marble top has an attractive pattern of its own, creating a lovely contrast with the warmth of the walnut and providing a particularly impressive finish. Presented in good condition, this elegant cabinet would make a wonderful feature in a hallway, bedroom, dining room or reception room, adding French elegance and antique character to the space.
