Description

Antique 20th century Georgian style chest of drawers in mahogany, a beautifully proportioned piece with a refined, traditional appearance. Well made and of good quality, it provides generous storage while bringing timeless character to a bedroom, dressing room or reception room. The chest stands on bracket feet and features four large drawers, each fitted with decorative brass handles. Two ebonised pillars to each of the front corners frame the drawers beautifully, adding contrast and a smart architectural detail to the design. The mahogany displays a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, enhancing the quality of the wood and its classic Georgian-inspired styling. Its balanced proportions and attractive detailing make it a highly desirable piece for a wide range of interiors. Presented in good condition, this elegant chest of drawers offers practical everyday storage with the enduring appeal of traditional furniture.
