Description

Antique 19th century Victorian blanket box in pine, a simple yet striking piece with a wonderfully traditional appearance. Well made and of good quality, it offers generous storage while bringing plenty of character to any home. Its plain design allows the natural beauty of the pine to take centre stage, creating an understated look that is both practical and timeless. The spacious interior is ideal for storing blankets, bedding, linens or other household items. The pine displays a warm, inviting colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, giving the box a lovely depth and individual character. Its clean lines and Victorian charm make it a highly desirable piece that will complement a wide range of interiors. Presented in good condition, this handsome blanket box would sit wonderfully at the end of a bed, in a living room or hallway, offering useful storage with a touch of antique warmth.
