Description

Antique 20th century set of six dining chairs in mahogany, comprising two carvers and four single chairs. A well-matched and elegant set, they are well made and of good quality, offering a comfortable and characterful setting for everyday dining or entertaining. Each chair stands on turned legs, joined by impressive stretchers that give the frames strength and visual interest. Subtle carving to the backs adds a refined decorative touch, while the gorgeous upholstery completes their polished appearance. The chairs are sturdy, with solid frames and no unwanted movement, giving them a reassuring feel for regular use. The mahogany has a rich, warm colour with gorgeous natural grain throughout, enhancing the quality and traditional appeal of the set. Presented in good condition, these attractive dining chairs would bring a polished and welcoming feel to a dining room, ready for family meals and special occasions alike.
