Description

A lovely small Bow porcelain sauceboat, of fluted shape, beautifully hand painted with floral sprays. A feathered pink border runs inside the rim and there is a small floral sprig inside the base. Unmarked, c.1765. Reference: Bow Porcelain, Adams & Redstone plate 84; British Porcelain Sauceboats, Panes, fig. 128. It measures 12.8cm (5") long by 5.8cm (2 1/4") wide and 5.8cm (2 1/4") high. In very good condition; it has a very small filled chip to the spout which is minimally noticeable. A tiny slither chip under the foot and two tiny glaze frits, one to the side of the foot and one to the rim. Two small spots of discolouration to the rim. Minimal handling wear.
