Description

An antique French Louis XVI style armchair in original paint, mid 19th, century with husk and ribbon carved frame, the square back with tied bow cresting over down-swept arms supported by channel moulded pilasters at the front, with feather-filled loose cushion and raised on channel moulded tapering supports. A really lovely quality armchair of generous proportions. The original cream coloured paintwork is nicely worn. This chair was purchased around 15 years ago from a chateau contents sale near Pau in the French Pyrenees. 100cm high, 71cm wide, the seat 48cm deep and 46cm high including the cushion. I can arrange re-covering and supply fabric if required - please get in touch for further details.
