Description

p0161 A striking antique French wall mirror, having an original bevelled edge slightly foxed glass in a beautifully carved frame adorned with a beaded inner edge, intricate leafy scrolls, and classical motifs, all crowned by a magnificent shell and floral crest. The richly embellished frame remains in a wonderful, sympathetically restored condition, retaining its original gilded finish. Authentic Details: It houses its original bevelled-edge glass plate, complete with charming age-related foxing. Historical Marker: A hand-scribed date of 11-3-69 on the glass provides a fascinating glimpse into its history. Condition: Structurally sturdy, woodworm-free, and complete with no missing elements. All fitted with wall brackets and in home-ready. H59.5" W39" D5" H4ft 11.5" W3ft 3" D5" H151cm W90cm D13cm.
