Description

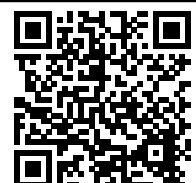

Victorian Burr Walnut Inlaid Loo Table Item Code: LC1458 A handsome Victorian burr walnut loo table of generous proportions, featuring an oval tilting top raised on an attractive carved pedestal base. The beautifully figured burr walnut top is quarter veneered and decorated with fine inlaid detail, including a continuous ribbon-style border with scrolling foliate motifs. The warm colouring and highly figured grain give the top considerable decorative appeal, while the moulded edge and shaped apron add further interest. The table is supported on a substantial turned and carved central pedestal, above four sweeping cabriole-style legs terminating in scrolling feet with castors. The top tilts vertically when not in use, allowing the table to be displayed decoratively as well as used practically within a dining room, drawing room or entrance hall. A decorative and versatile Victorian table with strong visual presence and attractive burr walnut figuring throughout. Key Features * Victorian period * Burr walnut construction * Oval tilting top * Quarter-veneered burr walnut surface * Decorative inlaid ribbon and foliate border * Moulded edge * Shaped frieze * Carved central pede...
