Description

Edwardian Regency Style Mahogany & Satinwood Oval Dining Table, Circa 1910 Item Code: LC1459 A handsome Edwardian Regency style oval dining table, combining a richly figured mahogany top with contrasting satinwood banding and a classic pedestal base. The substantial oval top is centred with well-figured mahogany and framed by a broad satinwood border, creating an attractive contrast in colour and grain. Fine line inlay further defines the border and adds to the refined appearance of the table. The table is raised on a central turned pedestal with four elegant swept legs, each terminating in brass-capped castors. The restrained Regency-inspired design, generous proportions and warm timber tones make this a versatile dining table suitable for both traditional and more contemporary interiors. A practical and decorative dining table with attractive proportions and an elegant period-inspired design.
