Description

A late Victorian walnut hall cupboard and stick stand by Jas Shoolbred and Co of London. Of excellent construction in solid walnut with attractive walnut veneers. The cupboard has a pair of drawers over a pair of cupboard doors, all fitted with original solid brass drop pendant handles. The cupboards open to reveal shelved interiors. The cupboards are flanked by a pair of stick stands complete with original drip trays. To the top is an upstand with mirror back. Offered for sale in excellent original condition, with a good colour and patina, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 166cms Depth 41cms Height 132cms James Shoolbred & Co The name of James Shoolbred & Co is highly respected among admirers of Aesthetic Movement furniture. Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931. A particularly fine example of James Shoolbred antique marquetry furniture – an ornate piano by designer Henry Batley – is on display at the V & A museum, London. Established in the 1820s, James Shoolbred's Tottenham Court Road company began life as a drapers. It began supplying textiles to the furniture...
