Description

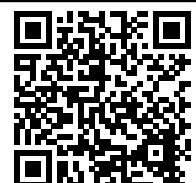

A top quality example only to be expected as it was made by the master silversmith, William Comyns and is signed with his initials W.C. The box is made from English Sterling silver and stands on four very elegant cabriole legs. The lid has an intricate raised border surrounding a glamorous tablet of tortoiseshell with a bright patina. The shell in turn is inlaid with an attractive silver pique decoration. The lid fits well, the hinge works perfectly and the interior is lined in an attractive blue silk. The box is hallmarked for London 1906, making this a true Edwardian example.
