Description

A magnificent boxed set of Fish Knives and Forks, complete for twelve with stunning Mother of Pearl handles. The blades of the knives are highly decorative with intricate engraving, the forks with a shield shaped engraving to the front; this set is the type we are always striving to find for our clients. The blades and tines are silver plated marked EPNS for Electro-Plated Nickel Silver. The ferrules however are made from English sterling silver, each hallmarked for Sheffield 1899, making this a true Victorian set. The makers initials CB are also present. The set comes complete with it's original Mahogany presentation box with a brass inlaid cartouche to the top, and is complete with working tasselled key. The interior is quite stunning a wonderful vibrant Jewel-Toned purple colour, a combination of silk and velvet and in wonderful condition. All excellent condition, the knives measuring 8" in length and the forks, 6 1/2" in length. The box measures 13" x 9" x 2 1/2" tall.
