Description

Sheffield 1932 English hallmarked solid silver heavy teaspoon engraved with The Scottish Terrier Club Scotland insignia, and an engraved realistically modelled Scottie head. The club was founded in 1888. The maker is Alexander Scott of Glasgow. This very collectable spoon was likely given as a prize at shows. Size-5 1/8 inches long by 1 1/8 inches wide bowl. Weight-25 grams. A well made and very collectable spoon for the collector of antique dog memorabilia, the Scottish Terrier owner, or the novelty silver collector. In very good condition. Please also see several other dog spoon listings from a collection of dog related silver, as well as a cast dog figural model.
