Description

A superb antique regency rosewood 19th century card table. This Georgian geo George/William IV games side hall narrow tea wine lamp photo serving mahogany coffee table has a wonderful figured top which swivels to reveal a baize playing surface. The frieze has the more desirable swept shape on a faceted and turned stem terminating in a lotus leaf collar. The whole is raised on a quadripartite base with four acanthus leaf and paper scroll feet with 4 swivel castors. This piece of furniture has been fully restored by our team of professional and qualified restorers to include a new baize and all loose joints tightened at a cost of £520. Circa 1830. Measures 35"w x 17.5"w x 29"h. Excellent condition. PLEASE SEE OUR OWN WEBSITE FOR FURTHER EXAMPLES ON SALE.
