Description

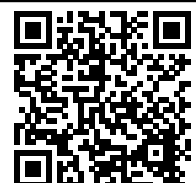

An outstanding and rare figural desk set standing on a beautifully polished white marble or alabaster base. The set features two large birds cast in bronze, originally silver plated or part-silver plated, now with an antique patina with mixed gold and silver tones; untouched and quite stunning. Beautifully executed each of the birds retain their original glass eyes. The inkwell retains its original ink chamber. The other bird has a hinged lid, the box would have been used to store postage stamps and / or pen nibs. All four corners retain the stands with original gilding used to rest one's dip pen. Another charming feature of the set is the two eggs attached to the base. Excellent condition, a few bruises to the edges of the stone, normal and insignificant. The stand measures 7 1/4" X 7 1/4"; stands 6 1/2" tall to top of standing bird. Item ID: 33416 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
