Description

 FREE DELIVERY TO MOST OF THE U.K.  Games Table - James Shoolbred London - c1900 This folding card table is presented in excellent order. The piece makes a good hallway, study or sofa table and converts to a fine card table with a rotating top section which folds over to reveal a baize interior. The table rides upon turned legs which are unified by a pleasing bobbin railed I-stretcher providing both interest and stability. The table top turns through a quarter turn to reveal a storage compartment. In the open position the table presents chip storage depressions at each corner. The table is of good craftsmanship and bears the label of James Shoolbred, London. The mahogany is presented in excellent order and delivers consistent quality colour throughout. Overall this piece of furniture is in very good condition. The table is well constructed and very solid. A wonderful games playing table and a good example of the type.
