SoldItem Reference: SA128811*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A most unusual dressing table jar, perfect for Q-tips in the finest of bathrooms or dressing rooms, reminding me very much of an Acorn with glass being shaped at the base rather than going straight down. The glass is intricately decorated, beautiful condition without damage. The sterling silver lid is again unusual with elongated heart-shaped panels, both plain and an embossed foliate design. The top is hallmarked for Sheffield 1902, early Edwardian in era. The makers initials JR are also present for the silversmith, John Round & Son Ltd. Excellent condition, measuring 3 1/2" tall and 3" across the lid. Item ID: 33454 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
