Item Reference: SA129151

Date of manufacture: 1860

Description

A very handsome letter opener made from sterling silver with the front panel of the handle inset with a tablet of glossy antique tortoiseshell. The ferrule joining the handle to the blade is quite stunning, highly decorative. The blade too is most attractive with an engraved design to both sides, the blade is clearly hallmarked for London 1867. As useful as beautiful in excellent condition; measuring 9 1/4" long.
