

SA130046

Thomas Hailes London Longcase Clock

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA130046*Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

An Elegant, slim London longcase clock. A mahogany case with an arched cresting and 3 brass finials. Brass stopped fluted hood columns and side sound fretwork. An arched trunk door, re-entrant base panel moulding and double skirt plinth base. An arched painted dial with strike/silent to the arch. Seconds and date dials with gilt brass hands. An 8-day duration mechanism with 5 pillars striking the hours on a bell. Thomas Hailes of London is recorded in Baillies' 'Watchmakers and Clockmakers of The World' book as working from 1769-1778. He is noted as working at Huggin Lane. Height 7ft 7 " / 230 cms

Seller Details

Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd

Bristol United Kingdom

Tel: 0117 956 5281

International Tel: +44 117 956 5281

