Item Reference: SA131543

Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A handsome late Georgian or early Victorian mahogany secretaire bookcase with a glazed top and three large drawers below the drop-down desk part of the chest. Inside the secretaire is a series of small drawers and a baize writing surface. There is a small tear to a piece of glass which although not too obvious could easily be replaced. It has regency style brass handles to all the drawers.
