Description

A fabulous late eighteenth century table box in a wonderful and most unusual shape. Made from Mahogany and Satinwood, the panels are framed in Ebony and Boxwood stringing. The top of the box is inlaid with a typically Sheraton period fan, very elegant. The interior has been recently re-lined with a smart hand-marbled paper creating a clean and fresh finish, ready to use. Excellent condition, with a few minor professional repairs. 11" at widest x 8" deep x 3" tall. Complete with working tasseled key.
