Description

A good heavy gauge of English Sterling silver was used to produce this handsome card case with all-over engraved foliate decoration. The front has a large vacant cartouche which could of course be engraved by your silversmith should you wish to personalize it. The lid fits perfectly and once opened reveals a crisp hallmark for Birmingham 1900, late Victorian in era. The makers initials JC are also present for the silversmith, Joseph Gloster. A super case in excellent condition, measuring 3 3/4" x 2 3/4". 2.58 Troy Ounces / 80.2 Grams. Item ID: 33443 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
