Description

A charming set of late Victorian or Edwardian napkin rings made from carved Ivory, I think probably French in origin. Each napkin ring remains in superb undamaged condition each with beautifully carved Roses around the outside. Their condition is clearly thanks to having been well preserved in their original silk lined presentation box, clearly safely tucked away for most of the last 100 years. Excellent condition, each having a diameter measuring 2" in diameter x 1 1/4" thick; the box measuring 10 1/2" x 3" x 2 3/4" tall.
