Description

A Large 19th Century French Carved and Parquetry Oak Draw Leaf table. This classic type of table has been very popular for many years, both in England and in France; it gives the use of a good sized dining table that can double in size for special feasts. The table stands on carved bulbous legs and it has a carved >-< stretcher. The carved table base is all made in solid Oak, the table top is veneered in Oak parquetry with a square inlay, this design is very popular in France. The table has two large leaves that draw out from each end on sturdy wooden supports; these are solid but not patterned like the main table top. The table is in very good condition, it has fabulous patination especially the top and stretcher, there are no breaks, splits, loose joints, wobbles. There is surface shading on the table top due to the many years of polishing it has received. This is the sturdiest extending table you will find and this a particularly pretty example. The table is 30" high and 24" under knee height. Closed the table is 52" x 40" Extended it is 90" x 40". VIEW ALL OF OUR CURRENT STOCK AT WWW.ELMGARDEN.CO.UK
