Description

A beautiful example of a mid-Victorian tea caddy, with a shaped front, all very original with its four bun feet and an old label still intact on the underside. Covered in stunning iridescent Nacre shell, creating a myriad of colours in various lights. The lid fits perfectly and the interior reveals the two covers with turned Ivory knobs and all edges trimmed in Ivory. The interior of the lid retains its original blue velvet lining. The lid is mounted with a silver shield shaped cartouche, complimenting the silver escutcheon housing a working tasselled key. Excellent condition, measuring 8" x 5 1/4" x 5" tall.
