Double-Fusee Dropdial Clock

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA134617*Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

A very rare opportunity to acquire a double fusee mahogany dropdial clock. A magnificent flame mahogany case with lenticle to the front and drop down door with working lock and key. The white 12" dial with black Roman numerals and nicely cut hands and with a spun brass bezel. The clock is signed "S. CORBETT. COVENTRY", a well known and documented maker. The clock strikes on a bell on the hour and has a beautiful rich tone. It has just been fully overhauled and serviced by our BFI registered staff. Double-fusee dropdial clocks are very few and far between and seldom come to market. Overall dimensions: 16.5" dia (43c.m.) 28" length. (71c.m.) 6" deep (15c.m.)
