Description

Rare French Antique Gothic Table Clock ~ French - Circa 1880 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A rare and very good quality original French antique table clock. It is Gothic in style and features a porcelain panel to the front. White on a black background with a pair of griffins and a coat of arms below the roman dial and gothic tracery to the centre of the dial. It is designed to look like ivory, finely fretted with gothic tracery. To the sides are mythical griffins supporting flying buttresses and the top is formed from four flying gothic arches with a finial above and a bell mounted within. The top of each side is formed as an arch with a Reynolds angel. The rear door is glazed to allow the movement to be seen and the clock is modelled in the round, ideal for displaying on a table. This is a beautifully modelled and finished table clock, heavily made in brass. The French movement is of high quality and is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. It has the retailers mark 'A.F.' on the backplate. Pendulum is a replacement. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. Click the video ...
