SoldItem Reference: SA138255*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

A stunning "D"-shaped napkin ring with a solid back and a shaped front with a highly decorative border top and bottom. The sides are beautifully pierced or reticulated surrounding a central shaped cartouche at the front, which of course could be engraved by your silversmith, should you wish to personalize it. The back bears the full English hallmark for Birmingham 1922, together with the makers mark J.W&S for the silversmith, James Woods & Sons. Excellent condition, measuring 2" x 1 3/8" x 1 1/2".
